Happy Sunday!

I hope everyone had a good, safe, and restful spring break. This week on Tuesday is the Solemnity of St. Joseph. On this special feast day the Church looks to this silent patron of the universal Church. The silence is part of the wonderful mystery of St. Joseph. Throughout the Scriptures, while St. Joseph is mentioned, he is not recorded to have said anything. He is a man of discernment, prayer, attentiveness, and sincerity. Certainly, this is not an exhaustive list, but these traits stand as a model for each of us too. Each of us is invited to imitate St. Joseph in his manner of life. He exemplifies in the Gospels what it means to be one who prays and thinks before he acts and speaks. We can take for example his way of being able to discern the authenticity of his dream when the angel appears to him, telling him not to be afraid to take Mary into his home. This kind of action only comes from one who is deeply rooted in prayer and attentive to the things of the Lord.

I want to take a moment to thank all the groups who have provided soup for our Friday Soup Suppers. I've been able to attend a few of them and the soup has been delicious at each one! If you haven't been able to make it I hope you can come to this final one before Palm Sunday!

Have a great week and know of my prayers!

In Christ,
Fr. Connealy

¡Feliz domingo!

Espero que todos hayan tenido unas buenas, seguras y relajantes vacaciones de primavera. Esta semana el martes es la Solemnidad de San José. En esta fiesta especial, la Iglesia mira a este patrón silencioso de la Iglesia universal. El silencio es parte del maravilloso misterio de San José. A lo largo de las Escrituras, aunque se menciona a San José, no se registra que haya dicho nada. Es un hombre de discernimiento, oración, atención y sinceridad. Ciertamente, esta no es una lista exhaustiva, pero estos rasgos también sirven de modelo para cada uno de nosotros. Cada uno de nosotros está invitado a imitar a San José en su forma de vida. Él ejemplifica en los Evangelios lo que significa ser alguien que ora y piensa antes de actuar y hablar. Podemos tomar por ejemplo su manera de poder discernir la autenticidad de su sueño cuando se le aparece el ángel diciéndole que no tenga miedo de acoger a María en su casa. Este tipo de acción sólo proviene de quien está profundamente arraigado en la oración y atento a las cosas del Señor.

Quiero tomarme un momento para agradecer a todos los grupos que han proporcionado sopa para nuestras cenas de sopa de los viernes. ¡He podido asistir a algunos de ellos y la sopa ha estado deliciosa en cada uno! ¡Si no has podido asistir espero que puedas venir a esta última antes del Domingo de Ramos!

¡Que tengas una excelente semana y conoce mis oraciones!

En Cristo,
Padre Connealy

St. Joseph, March 19

Everything we know about the husband of Mary and the foster father of Jesus comes from Scripture and that has seemed too little for those who made up legends about him.

We know he was a carpenter, a working man, for the skeptical Nazarenes ask about Jesus, "Is this not the carpenter's son?" (Matthew 13:55). He wasn't rich for when he took Jesus to the Temple to be circumcised and Mary to be purified he offered the sacrifice of two turtledoves or a pair of pigeons, allowed only for those who could not afford a lamb (Lk 2:24).

Despite his humble work and means, Joseph came from a royal lineage. Luke and Matthew disagree some about the details of Joseph's genealogy but they both mark his descent from David, the greatest king of Israel (Mt 1:1-16 and Lk 3:23-38). Indeed the angel who first tells Joseph about Jesus greets him as "son of David," a royal title used also for Jesus.

We know Joseph was a compassionate, caring man. When he discovered Mary was pregnant after they had been betrothed, he knew the child was not his but was as yet unaware that she was carrying the Son of God. He knew women accused of adultery could be stoned to death, so he resolved to send her away quietly to not expose her to shame or cruelty. However, when an angel came to Joseph in a dream and told him, "Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins," he did as the angel told him and took Mary as his wife. (Mt 1:19-25).

When the angel came again to tell him that his family was in danger, he immediately left everything he owned, all his family and friends, and fled to a strange country with his young wife and the baby. He waited in Egypt without question until the angel told him it was safe to go back (Mt 2:13-23).

We know Joseph loved Jesus. His one concern was for the safety of this child entrusted to him. Not only did he leave his home to protect Jesus, but upon his return settled in the obscure town of Nazareth out of fear for his life. When Jesus stayed in the Temple we are told Joseph (along with Mary) searched with great anxiety for three days for him (Luke 2:48). We also know that Joseph treated Jesus as his own son for over and over the people of Nazareth say of Jesus, "Is this not the son of Joseph?" (Luke 4:22)

We know Joseph respected God. He followed God's commands in handling the situation with Mary and going to Jerusalem to have Jesus circumcised and Mary purified after Jesus' birth. We are told that he took his family to Jerusalem every year for Passover, something that could not have been easy for a working man. Since Joseph does not appear in Jesus' public life, at his death, or resurrection, many historians believe Joseph probably had died before Jesus entered public ministry.

Joseph is the patron saint of the dying because, he died with Jesus and Mary close to him. Joseph is also patron saint of the Universal Church, families, and fathers

We celebrate two feast days for Joseph: March 19 for Joseph the Husband of Mary and May 1 for Joseph the Worker.
